

Clients

Tuesday, 24 July 2007

Dualvision provides Internet services for a diverse client base, ranging from consulting firms, brick-n-mortar stores to online businesses. With more than 10 years of experience, and hundreds of internet marketing and development projects completed, we have a depth of knowledge that is matched by few companies.

Testimonials "Thank you for your prompt and detail-oriented service. Your upgrade of my web site was 'just what the doctor ordered' and immediately led to an improved ranking of my web page on search engines, and to more clients for my firm."

Michael McVicker

Law Office of Michael McVicker Below is a selected list of our clients. A family based company, Artelye Marble & Granite has served the Greater Washington, Virginia and Maryland for more than 10 years. As a leading importer and distributor, Artelye established a reputation for searching the stone producing nations for the finest examples of natural granite, marble & travertine. Artelye is also a leading authorized fabricator and retailer of Quartz surfaces, most notably Dupont Zodiaq™ and Cosentino Silestone. Triple 7 Cellular Inc. is a leader in the retail and wholesales of cell phone accessories. Product range includes Faceplates; Housings; Holsters; Headsets; Flashing and Replacement Antennas, Batteries, Keypads; Leather Cases; Home, Car, Desktop Chargers; Car Kits, etc. Triple7Cellular is headquartered in New Jersey and operates a distribution center in New Jersey which allows it to serve all states in the United States. This AV-rated firm, with attorneys licensed to practice in Virginia and the District of Columbia, engages in an active trial practice in the federal and state courts. Charlson Bredehoff & Cohen's practice focuses largely in the areas of employment and business-related litigation. While the firm primarily acts as trial counsel in state and federal courts, as well as in arbitration and mediation, the firm also provides advice on non-litigated matters. Graniser operates worldwide. It produces over 260 million square feet of ceramic and wall tiles and established sales outlets serving customers around the world. Graniser also operates a showroom and warehouse in Alexandria, VA, USA which allows for nationwide distribution of our products throughout the US market which has started distributing its diversified line of ceramic floor, wall and porcelain tiles since 2003. Nema Food provides halal meat products in US market. Nema only sell the quality halal meat products and they are USDA approved and under the supervision of Islamic Authorities. Nema Food operates the only all-halal plant in the USA and Canada that has the slaughtering and processing facilities in one roof. The meat products are certified by NAHF, ICNA, ICP and use custom designed advanced “Zabiha Slaughtering” technology and manufacturing equipments. Since 1982, Marble Systems has been committed to creating exquisite collections of natural stone. Using the latest manufacturing technology, each individual product line is quarried and processed to your exacting specifications and produced in a wide variety of specialized surface finishes. With distribution and design centers throughout the United States, Marble Systems is uniquely positioned to provide a virtually unlimited supply of the industry’s highest quality natural stone products. Vintage Food Corporation was established in Brooklyn, New York in 1992 and soon became one of the leading wholesale distributors of domestic and imported specialty food products from all around the world, especially from Turkey. Vintage serves both American and ethnic markets with the finest confectionery, cookies, coffee, tea, edible oil, dairy products, dried fruits, nuts, olives, beverages, pasta, pickles, preserves, sweets, Turkish delights, bakery and pastry. It also carries organic and dietary goods. Amity Meat provides fresh meat to the Greater Washington, DC, area. Amity is a full service butcher shop serving all of Washington Area. And it offers home delivery of 100% Halal products to households in the Washington DC Metropolitan Area. Here, you can find the freshest choice cut beef, fresh lamb and veal, all natural poultry shipped in daily. And since this is a full service shop, you always leave with exactly what you came for. Istanbul Market operates two stores in Paterson, New Jersey and distributes domestic and imported specialty food products from all around the world, especially from Turkey. Istanbul Market serves both American and ethnic markets with the finest confectionery, cookies, coffee, tea, edible oil, dairy products, dried fruits, nuts, olives, beverages, pasta, pickles, preserves, sweets, Turkish delights, bakery and pastry.

American Turkish Friendship Association (ATFA) is a non-profit non-governmental organization with no political affiliation dedicated to addressing the social and cultural needs of Turkish and American friends living in the Washington D.C. Metropolitan Area. We aim to promote of understanding of American and Turkish cultures, and to foster integrity through cultural and educational activities. Providing an inspiring atmosphere for the friends and helping them getting better integrated with their local communities are some of the primary goals of our association. With over 25 years of experience, MKO Marble & Granite is a solid source for marble and granite countertops and marble and limestone installations and fabrications. Specializing in custom home installations both new and remodels, we offer our experience in design, material selection, and installation expertise to help you achieve the ultimate style in home interior surfaces. So from your pool to your kitchen countertops we can offer you stone solutions to fit many needs.

A Company Rich in History & Tradition: Mireille Picou, co-founder of Amero Foods Mfg. Corp traces her roots in the Pastry industry back to 1865, when her great grandfather, Gustave Picou established a distillery in St. Denis on the Seine province of France. They manufactured superb liquors, syrups and pastry fillings.